Volunteers of America (VOA) is one of the nation's largest human service organizations with over 16,000 professionals dedicated to helping those in need. Founded in 1896, VOA has spent over 125 years helping individuals and communities including disabled adults, at-risk youth, veterans and teen parents. VOA operates in over 46 states and serves over 1.5 million people per year.

VOA of Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho dedicate themselves to helping those in need rebuild their lives and reach their full potential. VOA offers a wide variety of innovative programs for every situation, including mental health, housing, and emergency support. The Eastern Washington and North Idaho branch has been serving our Community since the late 1800's.
